Dear Parents,

Welcome to our official 17th Anniversary Spring Recital of “Back to Broadway”. It’s hard to believe it’s been seventeen years since we started with six students in a little matchbox studio out of a Ballroom school that led to a shoebox space on Commercial Boulevard, that has now evolved to a state-of-the-art facility on Federal Highway, which has also seen the expansion of a third beautiful studio classroom, and a 4th studio room coming soon! It is a true joy and gift to teach and touch the lives of your children as we dance and laugh and learn each week in class and to watch them grow and improve their technique and performance each year. Those of you that have been with us from the beginning can surely see the growth and progress and to those who come new each year, we hope you will continue to join us on this journey as we strive to offer you the best quality training as well as studio experience for all ages and levels. We at the Academy value all our students from the tiniest babies to the most accomplished senior students and graduates. And, it has been our pride and joy to develop your children and watch them go on in their lives as dancers, students, teachers, parents, or whatever their calling may be.

The Academy celebrated many events through the years that included our 12th annual production of “The Nutcracker Ballet” this year at the Coral Ridge Presbyterian Church as well as other mini performances throughout our community in our local churches, parks, parades, festivals, and assisted living facilities including a standout performance at The Lauderdale Performing Arts Center for the Choreographers Ball. What a blessing to see our children enjoy performing as well as touching others as they dance for joy and showcase their talents.

The Academy also participated in numerous community service opportunities including St. Coleman’s Italian Festival, Imperial Point Fall Festival, Lauderdale By the Sea Christmas Festival and the Floranada Day Fair. The Academy is a performance-based school where we aim to focus on the technique, talents, and sharing of our gifts with others through shows and demonstrations for the community as well as offering competition opportunities for those interested in attending local conventions, seminars, and workshops to further our students’ education, progress, and development in the art of dance.

This year marked our 10th participation in the annual Competition & Convention with Florida Dance Masters where all our participating students received amazing awards and special recognitions. Congratulations to many of our students for their outstanding high gold, and platinum awards, special congratulations to all our top 10 finalists and their choreographers.

Congrats to many of our students for their auditions, acceptance and scholarships to some top national schools including American Ballet Theatre, Joffrey Ballet, Miami City Ballet, Atlanta Ballet, Houston Ballet, Boston Ballet, and The Rock School. This year marks 10 years for Academy students attending summer Ballet Intensives to improve and excel their training! Good luck to all our students and we look forward to hearing all about it. Several of our Academy alumni continue their studies at the New World School of the Arts on dance scholarship. (Ms. Astrid’s alma mater!) It is an honor to come full circle and find ourselves in our neighborhood amongst our peers and friends and to give back to the community.

The Academy prides itself on providing excellent, quality training and service in a kind, caring and professional environment in a time that it is hard to find. We feel we go a step beyond others as all our teachers are trained to know their students by name, and not just numbers, as well as trying to know our parents and do our best for you. We know we can’t always please everyone all the time, but our mission is to do all we do to the best of our abilities in a God honoring way. We hope that you will enjoy the show as you are about to see a “production” and not just any dance recital. The students and teachers have worked very hard and are proud and honored to present to you their talents, gifts, and “joy of dancing”. So, sit back for a few hours and enjoy the show!

Thank you and God Bless you,

Ms. Astrid

Special Thanks:

Astrid Audet, Artistic Director

Astrid Audet began her ballet training at the late age of twelve at the Fort Lauderdale Ballet Classique under the direction of Magda Auñón and went on to study at the world-renowned Harid Conservatory under full scholarship at age sixteen. At these prestigious schools she performed soloist and principal roles in such famous Ballets including: The Nutcracker, Sleeping Beauty, Coppelia, Le Corsaire, Cinderella, La Bayadere, & Paquita, among others. It is during this time that she discovered and developed her true passion and love for the art and beauty of Ballet.

In 1990, Astrid received the coveted Presidential Scholar in the Arts award from hundreds of high school senior applicants nationwide and was invited to perform at the Kennedy Center in Washington, DC before President George Bush and the first lady. Astrid's other awards include 1st place recipient for the National Foundation for the Advancement in the Arts and 3rd place recipient for the National Arts and Letters Recognition Competition. She also received numerous scholarships to study at America's finest Ballet schools and companies including American Ballet Theatre, Houston Ballet, San Francisco Ballet, & Pennsylvania Ballet, among others.

From 1990 to 1992, at age 17, Astrid became among the youngest members to dance professionally with the acclaimed Boston Ballet. It was here that she gained her experience and expertise training among the best of dancers and ballet masters worldwide. She also enjoyed touring throughout the Northeast region and dancing repertoire from many famous Ballets and new contemporary works as well.

After a difficult year of injury, Astrid came home and began her college studies at Florida Atlantic University and began teaching ballet locally as she tried to heal her body. It was during this time that she discovered her love for teaching and working with children. In 1996, Astrid graduated with high honors from the New World School of the Arts in Miami earning her BFA degree in Dance and Teaching Certificate from the University of Florida in Gainesville.

For the past 30 years, Astrid has been teaching and choreographing throughout South Florida's finest dance academies including her very first ballet school, Magda Auñón School of Ballet and Meg Segreto's Dance Center, International Ballet Academy, University Center for the Performing Arts, Dance Academy of North Lauderdale, and Many But One. She is a certified teacher and educator through Florida Dance Masters and has worked for the association as a Master Teacher and guest choreographer. In 1995, Astrid was honored with a nomination for Who's Who among America's best teachers, an honor she holds very dear to her heart. In 2004, Astrid's choreography of her own creation to "Pachabel's Canon" for the Fort Lauderdale Ballet Classique won the Monticello Award at the renowned Southeastern Regional Ballet Festival. Students from Astrid's Academy have won numerous awards and scholarship in the past years at local conventions and competitions as well as have gone on to dance in many of America's leading professional companies and colleges including Boston Ballet, New York City Ballet, Joffrey, Ballet, Houston Ballet, Sarasota Ballet, New World School of the Arts, North Carolina School of the Arts, UCLA, NYU, UF, and FSU among others.

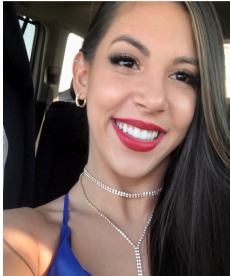

In 1997, Astrid began her yoga practice, which became another love of hers, and in 2003 Astrid was invited to participate in a local Yoga Exhibition that granted her a first-place award for the state of Florida and landed her a spot at the International Yoga Exposition in Los Angeles, California. She traveled to LA and came home with the Bronze medal from thousands of participants from all over the world including China, Japan, and India. She also enjoys running outdoors and participated in her first marathon in February of 2012.

Astrid and her husband Robert, along with their two daughters Gabrielle (21) and Annabelle (17) reside in East Fort Lauderdale where she continues to teach and share her passion and joy for ballet with children of all ages. This year Gabrielle, an accomplished dancer student and choreographer completed her 3rd year at the University of Florida pursuing a double major in Dance and Advertising. Annabelle continues to dance and teach and finished her junior year at Westminster Academy. Astrid thanks Her Lord God Almighty for His grace and guidance and His greatest gift of salvation, as well as her family and friends for all their love and support and all her "Beautiful Ballerinas" for allowing her to share her gifts and talents with them. It is, without doubt, the most rewarding of all her accomplishments, to give back her gift and passion to help shape her students' lives. After all, "To teach is to touch a life forever".
